Escape the Ordinary in Honolulu with Scoot!

- Asia Pacific's Best Low Cost Airline<sup>1</sup> Scoot launches sales for long-haul flights to its first USA destination
  - Attractive promotional fares to the tropical paradise

Singapore – Get your hula ready as Scoot launches ticket sales for Honolulu, the airline's second long-haul destination after Athens, Greece, which debuted in June this year. The new service between Singapore and Honolulu also marks Scoot's maiden entry into the United States of America.

The four-times-weekly flight serviced by the wide-bodied, twin-aisled Boeing 787 Dreamliner from Singapore to Honolulu with a stopover in Osaka is slated to commence on 19 December 2017. Once the Honolulu route starts, Scoot will operate non-stop Singapore–Osaka service, in addition to its existing three-times-weekly services to Osaka via Bangkok and Kaohsiung. The total frequency to Osaka from Singapore will, therefore, increase from 6-times-weekly to 10-times-weekly.

New Destinations

The long-awaited Honolulu service is among the five new destinations announced on 25 July 2017 in conjunction with the completion of the Scoot-Tigerair integration under the single Scoot brand. The other four are Kuching and Kuantan in Malaysia, Harbin in Northeast China and Palembang in Indonesia.

“Say ‘Aloha’ to Hawaii as Scoot makes our entry into the USA with our second long-haul route,” said Mr Lee Lik Hsin, Scoot CEO. “With the completion of the merger, Scoot now provides excellent connectivity with 60 destinations across 17 countries. Our network is set to grow further as our fleet of Boeing 787 Dreamliners and A320 aircraft is expected to be doubled in the next 5 years. Scoot now owns a combined fleet of 38 aircraft with 44 more on order, and this means more exciting destinations, both long and short-haul, are in the pipeline.”

Located on the tropical island of Oahu, Honolulu is a renowned beach paradise steeped in its unique Polynesian culture and favoured by holiday makers worldwide. Party the Hawaiian way with the ever-popular Mai Tais at Waikiki Beach, dive into the clear waters of the Hanauma Bay in the Southeast, and snorkel the depths of the vibrant marine ecosystem, Honolulu is the perfect tropical getaway.

Promotional Fares

To celebrate its first foray into USA, Scoot is offering attractive round-trip fares from Singapore to Honolulu from as low as SGD 555 on Economy FLY fare, and SGD 1,555 on ScootBiz.
